

150 MAGICKAL SPELLS

Magick comes from all over the globe. There is not a culture or people that did not at one time possess a magickal tradition. And many cultures still have an active magickal element.

Casting a spell come in virtually an unlimited number of forms. Some spells have words spoken; others may be thoughts. Some use potions; others use candles; others again may involve botanicals. There are many ways to cast a spell. And all are as equally effective based on one core component....

Your belief in the power of magick. Your belief in what you are doing - that it can, and will work. It is about what your goals are, and what your intent is.

Also it is important that you pick spells that feel uniquely right for you. This will heighten their effectiveness. If you are not drawn to chanting, or working with botanicals or..... find a spell that works for you.

There are over 150 spells in this book for you to choose from. Split into the many different areas of life. Know too that the most powerful spell is a spell that you create.

So trust your intuition. Learn from the contents of this book. And refine and remould based on what feels right to you.

If you have fear, worry or concern when casting a spell. It won't work. If you are focused on what you don't want – that is what you will create for yourself.

When you cast any of these spells, or the spells you create yourself the key is that you need to be in a centred, open hearted, open-minded space. And that you view the very thing you are wishing for as yours now. You focus on HAVING it versus WANTING it. As that is what will be bought back to you – what you believe you have already is what you will indeed have. What you want – you will continue to want.

It is a very subtle yet dynamic shift in your focus – and essential to spell casting working for you.

Enjoy and may you create the outcomes you desire!

Conjuring By Colors

Color Magick is a basic tenet for working spells. The properties of each color determine how it impacts your mood, frame of mind, and the potency of your spell casting.

Love & Romance Spells

Tips for Successful Romantic Magick

Timing:

Friday coinciding with a New Moon is considered the most auspicious time to perform love spells.

Friday's in general are the best days for love spells.

The day is named in honor of Freya, Northern Lady of Love. It is also the day associated with other powerful spirits of love – Aphrodite and Oshun.

Colors for Love Magick:

Yellow
Orange
Pink
Red

Numbers:

Two: the standard number – for the obvious reason

Five: if you'd like to invoke the power of Oshun, Orisha of Love

Six: if you'd like to invoke the power of Aphrodite, Lady of Love

Eight: if you'd like to invoke the power of Inanna-Ishtar, Queen of Heaven.

Eight is also the number of infinity and eternity.

Bathe your hands in rose water prior to mixing up any love potions or powders to intensify their effects.

If you find that your love spells are consistently not working place a strand of your target's hair under a continuously dripping faucet to magickally wear away resistance (remember too that we are to always allow others to have free will, and wish for what is the best for us and the other person when we cast our spells).

Amber Charm – Dreams Of Desire

On a Thursday night make a list of the qualities you desire in a romantic partner or visualize and name a specific person. Before you go to sleep that night, leave a piece of amber by your bed or under your pillow.

On Friday morning, first thing upon awakening, clutch the amber in your left hand, holding it close to your heart.

Close your eyes and visualize your desire. Make it as real and tangible as possible – as if you are with them now – you HAVE what you desire. Take as much time as you need.

Kiss the amber and wrap it up in a small piece of silk, wrapping or rolling towards you.

Keep this with you for seven days, carrying it by day, sleeping with it as night, beside your heart, between your breasts, wherever.

Repeat the process every morning. At the conclusion you will have a highly charged love-drawing amulet.

Bring The Love You Want To You Spell

Find a photo or draw a picture that represents the person who you desire to be with (or reconnect). You may or may not be in this photo as well.

Create a sacred space or altar that includes items that feel energetically positive to you (for love you may want to include rose quartz crystals and/or figurines that show loving couples).

Hold this picture in both hands and meditate with it, and see yourself and this other person as if you are already together. If it is marriage you desire – feel into the feelings you would have if you were married already.

Feel the joy you would feel of being together. Meditate on this for about 5-10 minutes.

Then place the photo in your sacred space. And as you go about your life, when you think of this person and yourself, always think of being in the relationship you desire to have with them as if you had it now.

Clear out any doubts or fears that it is anything other than that.

By having this constant positive focus, energetically and magickally you will draw that person to you.

Do not worry, wonder, or plot the 'how', simply keep your focus on you being with them together as a couple, happy and in love as if that was your reality right now in this moment.

(Remember no one has to know what you are thinking, so do not allow yourself to buy into others projections or judgements on what is real, possible or appropriate).

- ❖ Once the candle burns down, place the card underneath your pillow so that it can provide romantic insight and inspiration while you sleep.
- ❖ During the day wear rose quartz in a charm bag, pocket or tucked into your bra to attract and maintain the love you desire.

Lodestone Love Spell

Lodestone's magnetic properties are used to draw love towards you and then keep that love close at hand.

Lodestones are believed to have genders, just like other living creatures. Their gender is determined by their appearance: the rounder looking ones are female, while the males are the more phallic looking stones.

Choose lodestones to match your desires, use one to represent yourself and another to represent the person you would like to draw into a romance.

- ❖ Choose a lodestone that represents you and soak it in 'Come to Me Lover Oil'
- ❖ Sprinkle it with magnetic sand and place it on the edge of a mirror

- ❖ Choose a lodestone that represents the person you wish to draw into romance.
- ❖ Soak this one in 'Amor Oil'
- ❖ Sprinkle with Magnetic Sand and place it on the mirror, on the opposite edge of the first lodestone.

- ❖ Light it and focus on your wish for romance and move the two lodestones slightly closer to each other.
- ❖ Pinch out the candle
- ❖ Repeat this daily until the lodestones meet in the middle, and then allow the candle to burn all the way down.

Come To Me Lover Oil

 Tuberose absolute

Blend the above into apricot kernel or sweet almond oil.
 This is the most deluxe love-drawing oil. The ingredients are extremely expensive. It is not required that all of them be used, although the first three are fairly standard. The substitution of petitgrain for neroli will keep the costs down.

Amor Oil

Place a balm of Gilean bud and a piece of coral inside a bottle
 Cover these with sweet almond and jojoba oils
 Add a few drops of either petitgrain or neroli essential oil plus a drop of tangerine essential oil
 Add a bit of ground cinnamon or one drop of essential oil of the cinnamon leaf.

Primary Number: 2 – because it encapsulates the concept of doubling

Primary Colors: green and gold

Planets: Jupiter – because it is the planet of good fortune; the Moon, because it's the planet of magick and fulfilled wishes; and Mercury because the Roman God whose name it bears is involved with prosperity and finance.

Money Drawing Candle Spell

Items needed:

- ❖ One green candle and holder
- ❖ Lavender Oil
- ❖ A pen or sharp pointed object

For best results begin this spell on the first night of the waxing moon. Gather the items called for and place on a small table to serve as an altar. Relax and visualize the amount of money you need. Pick up the candle and inscribe your name near the top of it.

In the middle draw a large dollar sign. At the bottom of the candle write out the exact amount of money you need.

Next anoint the candle with the lavender oil. Be sure to rub the entire candle with the oil. As you anoint the candle chant the following:

*Money, money come to me
As I will, so it shall be*

Place the candle in the holder and light it. Gaze into the flame of the candle and repeat the chant.

Allow the candle to burn for four hours and then extinguish it. Repeat the spell each night until the full moon. On the night of the full moon allow the candle to burn out. You should receive your money before the next new moon.

Now as you move through your day, take note of the many things that you could purchase with $100. Remind yourself each time that you see something that you like, that you could purchase it because you have $100 in your wallet.

By holding the $100 and not spending it right away, you receive a vibrational advantage each time you even think about it. So if you were to remember the $100 and spend it on the first thing you noticed, you would have received the benefit of feeling your financial well being only once.

Now if you mentally spent that $100 bill 20-30 times in that day, you have received a vibrational advantage of having spent two or three thousand dollars!

Antidotes to Hexes & Reversing Spells

Antidote Red Brick Dust

Red Brick dust is a powerful magickal remedy (if you cannot access red brick dust you can use: ground hematite, henna powder or red ochre).

Smash an old red brick with a hammer to obtain the dust, add it to a bucket of water and cleanse wherever you know of suspect a hex was laid.

You can also spread the red brick dust around the perimeter of your home (or even inside if you feel that is necessary).

Sweep it out with a ritual broom.

Dispose of the broom after sweeping or reserve for similar use.

Cayenne Hexbreaker

Sprinkle cayenne pepper throughout the home to break any malevolent spells.

Chamomile Hexbreaker

Sprinkle chamomile around the perimeter of your home and property to break any spells against you.

Reversal Candle

Obtain a new seven-day candle. Turn it upside down. Carve the bottom of the candle so that the wick is not exposed and may be lit.

Slice the top of the candle so that it can stand. Dress the candle. If you know the name of your jinjer, carve that into the candle.

Light the wick and chant:

Candle let the evil done against me reverse itself as I have reversed you

Say this nine times whilst visualising the weight of the curse being spirited away into nothing.

Hydrangea Hex Reversal

Burn dried Hydrangea to reverse spells and remove hexes. Blend the ashes with more dried, ground hydrangea and scatter around the home.

And to close on a positive, loving note:
